Kamloops, BC –Canadian Home Builders Association Central Interior Hosts Michael ‘Pinball’ Clemons to Sell Out Crowd

Michael ‘Pinball’ Clemons spoke to over 400 appreciative people at the Canadian Home Builders Association Central Interior January Dinner Meeting.

“The timing couldn’t have been better to bring in an inspirational speaker of Pinball’s character,” said Doug Wittal, President of CHBA CI.

“With the slow down in economic activity, people tend to stop working hard and that was one of the key messages Pinball gave to us all. We can beat the competition by working harder, doing a better job, being positive consistently and knowing that we are part of a team in whatever we do, both personally and professionally.”

Pinball had several messages he shared over the two hours he spoke to the audience. Know who you are, be passionate, do what you love, know that we are part of a team and each of us makes a significant contribution to that team but we need the other team players as well. Ten percent of life is what happens to us, 90% of life is what we do about it. Life is to be enjoyed and enjoyment is a decision we make.

He spoke about the unspeakable revelation of Barack Obama winning the Presidency of the United States. He ended by saying that he was proud of his American heritage but felt more like a Canadian, having lived in Canada for over twenty years. He was now becoming a Canadian citizen.

The January Special Speaker Series is an annual event that CHBA CI hosts to involve the broader community.

CHBA Central Interior is an active residential builder association of 180 members representing the Central Interior region of BC.
