FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kamloops, BC –CHBA CI to bring Whitecaps FC legend Bob Lenarduzzi as their January, 2012 Special Speaker

The Canadian Home Builders' Association of the Central Interior (CHBA CI) has confirmed Canadian soccer legend Bob Lenarduzzi as the keynote speaker for the January 2012 Dinner Meeting.

Bob Lenarduzzi has enjoyed an incredible soccer career both as a player, coach, and manager. He has played for Canada in the FIFA World Cup and Olympic Games and was also the coach of Canada's men's and U-23 Olympic men's national teams. Bob Lenarduzzi is currently the president of Vancouver Whitecaps FC, which includes teams in Major League Soccer, United Soccer Leagues W-League and Premier Development League.

Lenarduzzi will share his insights on teamwork, overcoming obstacles and leadership - universal principals, which apply to personal, professional, and business success.

"The Special Speaker Series is a benefit for our members and is open to the public," said CHBA CI President Brian Hayashi. "It is a great way to kick off the New Year."

In the past the CHBA CI has brought in Trevor Linden, Rex Murphy, and Michael "Pinball" Clemons.

The dinner/speaker event will take place January 25, 2012, at the Kamloops Convention Centre.

CHBA Central Interior is an active residential builder association of 200 members representing the Central Interior region of BC.
